

Press Release

British College of Aesthetic Medicine, London, UK, 6th February 2020

Dr Uliana Gout elected new President of the British College of Aesthetic Medicine (BCAM)

Further to the meeting of the Board of Directors on 31st January 2020, the British College of Aesthetic Medicine (BCAM) is delighted to announce Dr Uliana Gout as its new President.

Dr Gout is a passionate and globally renowned clinician and educator within the field of Aesthetic Medicine. Dr Gout is a long-standing member of BCAM and has most recently served on the Board as Director of PR & Marketing, as well as a BCAM Appraiser and on the BCAM Audit Committee. Dr Gout also acts in Director and Committee roles for leading national and international congresses as well as industry associations. A passionate writer and thought-leader, she has co-authored numerous medical textbooks and publications in the field of Aesthetic Medicine.

Dr Gout said: "It's a great honour to have been elected President of BCAM. I am very proud of BCAM's 20 year heritage and its base of 400 Members. I look forward to working closely with the Board and the Members in the coming months to crystallise our vision and growth strategy for the future of BCAM and am grateful to all for their continued support. I am excited to build BCAM as a leading voice for the industry."

BCAM's Acting CEO, Mr Greg White said: "I am thrilled to work with Dr Gout in furthering the BCAM vision and its voice in the industry"

BCAM's immediate past President Dr Paul Charlson said: "I am delighted to see that BCAM will be going forward under Dr Gout's leadership and her compelling vision for the future. I know our Members and the team look forward to working with her."

CONTACT US ON:
press@bcam.ac.uk 01474 823900
www.bcam.ac.uk

The British College of Aesthetic Medicine (BCAM) was conceived in 2000 and currently represents over 400 UK and international doctors and dentists practicing Aesthetic Medicine. BCAM is a registered charity in England and Wales. Registration No. 1181666